In a general sense, once a piece of legislation has been drafted by whomever drafted it, as staff, we get the bill filed with the calendar clerk, and then it goes through a general process that every bill goes through, and once it gets referred to a committee, we make the bill hearing request. Along with the bill hearing request, we will do a bill analysis, or provide information to the committee so that they can have a bill analysis prepared. Once the bill is set for a hearing, we will help the Senator with talking points.

FREDERICK: I object on legislative privilege. To the extent there are matters in the record that you can identify, you're free to do so, but don't go beyond that. A. On the record, Senator Fraser said he thought the additional two years from 2009 to 2011 provided us the opportunity to see that the states that had voter ID were not that it was working. Q. (By Ms. Maranzano) What do you mean by that? A. That people were still voting, that turnout was still fine, that there hadn't been any voter had come forward that had been unable to vote. Q. And are you referring to anything other than what we already talked about with the Senator having presented the actual turnout rates from Georgia and Indiana? A. No.	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	to be additional training given to poll workers on that topic? A. I think under Senate Bill 14, the Secretary of State is instructed to provide additional training. Q. Did you discuss any of these regulations with the Secretary of State's Office? MR. 16	testify that SB 14 has no discriminatory effect?	16	leaving this deposition open, and I will now hand it
17	A. Yes.	17	over to Chad.
18	MS. MARANZANO: Well, to be clear for	18	EXAMINATION
19	Mr. Frederick, it's our position that if she's taking	19	BY MR. DUNN:
20	that position, we have a right to explore the basis of	20	Q. Good afternoon.
21	that under our motion to compel.	21	A. Hi.
22	MR. FREDERICK: I'm sorry. Just so I'm	22	Q. Hi. My name is Chad Dunn. I don't think we've
23	clear, to explore what?	23	ever met before, have we?
24	MS. MARANZANO: To explore the I mean,	24	A. I don't think so.
25	there's a number of questions that are related to that,	25	Q. All right. Well, I know you've been here for
	226		228
1	that y'all have not permitted her to answer. So we	1	quite a while today, so I'm not going to, you know, try

8	called to testify at trial.	8	can, I may end up having to overlap just a little bit,
9	MR. DUNN: Intervenors join.	9	and for that I apologize. All right.
10	MR. FREDERICK: Okay. I understand.	10	I'm going to start a little bit with some
11	Q. (By Ms. Maranzano) Ms. McCoy, are there any	11	of your earlier testimony. As I understand it, you used
12	answers that you've provided today that you now wish to	12	to be an election judge; is that true?
13	change?	13	A. One election I served as election judge.
14	A. Yes.	14	Q. Which election was that?
15	Q. What's that?	15	A. Maybe 2000. I don't really recall. It's been
16	A. When we took our break.	16	a while.
17	Q. Uh-huh.	17	Q. Was that in Travis County?
18	A. I went back and tried to look at the record of	18	A. Yes, sir.
19	when things passed or didn't pass.	19	Q. And were you appointed as the actual election
20	Q. Uh-huh.	20	judge, or you served as a volunteer?
21	A. And I didn't have a lot of time, because there	21	A. I was not precinct chair.
22	was someone in my office on an unrelated issue for most	22	Q. Okay.
23	of the hour. But you the Senate did remove the	23	A. I they called and asked me, it was a
24	provision on student ID's, not the House. I think I had	24	November election, the local party called and said we
25	testified that the House removed it, but we ended up	25	need a Republican, because they had they wanted a

2	and they asked me to do it, and I said yes. I don't	2	Q. Was it the chairman?
3	know if they had to actually turn my name in or not.	3	A. I don't recall.
4	Q. Okay. And I'm not trying to quarrel with you,	4	Q. I assume that you vote in most elections?
5	but it sounds more like you were an election observer or	5	A. Yes, sir.
6	a poll watcher than an election judge.	6	Q. Do you vote in both nonpartisan and partisan
7	A. No, sir. I was an election or the assistant	7	elections?
8	election I don't think I was the election judge. I	8	A. Yes, sir.
9	was the assistant election judge. I mean, I actually	9	Q. And you're going to hate me for asking this,

And was that prepared by the Legislative Budget Board? A. Yes, sir. Q. Can you recall if, and I'm not asking for the numbers, but from the various sessions you've been asked about photo ID bills today, can you recall if there were any changes to the fiscal note of the bill in its various iterations? A. I don't recall what the fiscal note was in 2007. I think in 2009 the number stayed somewhere in the 2 to 4 million dollar range. Q. Do you remember who the analyst at LBB was on these bills? A. I did not know the analyst at LBB. Q. Did you ever communicate with the analyst at LBB? A. No, sir. Q. Did you ever provide LBB any estimates as to your belief as to the fiscal impact of the bill?

The bill analysis that was created by Senate Bill 14 as it came out of Senate, as it was filed, as it came out of Senate committee as it was grossed, engrossed, was prepared by Senate Research Center, essentially, via the Senate administrative process. The House, when it made it over there, their processes developed their own bill analysis for use. I don't really recall I don't know who does theirs. Q. All right. A. They probably base it on ours, but they do their own. Q. And I want to focus on the Senate report first. The Senate report was prepared by Senate Research, if I understood your answer right. A. Is it more difficult to pass a piece of legislation when it has a fiscal impact statement from LBB that it costs a considerable amount of money? A. Not always, but the majority of the time, yes, you'd rather have a zero fiscal note than not. Or have a low fiscal note than not. Q. And just so our court, which may not understand the process here in Texas, our budget here in the state is prepared either by the House Appropriations Committee or the Senate Finance Committee in alternating sessions; is that true? A. That's true. Q. And so if a member wants to pass a bill that	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	14, in 2011, you can't recall what, if anything, you did to get the bill funded? A. I don't recall that I did anything to get the bill funded Q. All right. A on behalf of Senator Fraser. Q. Senator Fraser has served on the Finance Committee before, has he not? A. Yes, he has. Q. When did that service stop? A. I don't recall. 2005 or 2007. Q. Do you recall the senator you approached in 2009 to hold the contingency rider on the committee? A. I do not. Q. Do you know who carried it in 2011? A. I do not. Q. Just for our record, which was the appropriation bill in '11 out of the house or out of the Senate? Or do you remember? A. I don't remember. Q. I don't either so I was hoping you did. A. I try to forget.

Q. (By Mr. Dunn) Are you aware -- this one ought to get past the bully here.

Are you aware that the Secretary of State's office has data and computer staff that might be capable of performing an analysis about the impact of a particular legislation on minority citizens?

- A. I've seen the data that they prepared for the Department of Justice, so yes, I know that now.
 - Q. You know that they are capable of doing that?
- A. Yes, sir.
 - Q. The data, though, that's been prepared for the Department of Justice, all that came about after Senate Bill 14 had been passed by legislature and signed by the Governor, true?
 - A. True.

Q. (By Mr. Dunn) Is it your opinion that this bill will not have the effect of discouraging even one voter?

MR. FREDERICK: That's -- cautionary instruction, I mean, I think as phrased, to the extent the question seeks your opinion, as you sit here, you may answer.

- A. My opinion is that it will not impact one voter negatively.
- Q. (By Mr. Dunn) All right. If you could go with me to US-31. Right here on the top.
 - A. Oh, yes.
- Q. I'd like to go with you to the last paragraph, and if I remember your testimony from earlier, you at least prepared the initial draft of 31; is that true?
 - A. Yes, sir.

Q. Let me fix the question.

What resources other than Secretary of State did you have to consult about doing data type analysis on the effect of SB 14 on minorities?

MR. FREDERICK: I'm sorry. Could you read -- read the question back, sir?

(Requested portion read back by the court reporter.)

MR. FREDERICK: I'm going to object on legislative privilege. I think that gets into thoughts and mental impressions. I'll instruct you not to answer.

A. I'll assert.

MR. DUNN: All right. And I just want to make sure. So she's not allowed to tell me what agencies or groups could have performed this analysis that she's aware of?

276

- Q. And I told you the last paragraph. I really 2 meant the next to the last one that begins with "voting 3 is"?
 - A. Okay.
 - Q. The sentence reads: "Voting is one of our most important rights as Americans, but it is also a responsibility." Do you see that?
 - A. Yes, sir.
 - Q. In my reading, I don't understand, and I don't think it's defined in the writing here what it was meant be responsibility. Is there a sentence that informs what that phrase, "but it is also a responsibility," in this document?
 - A. No, sir.
 - Q. All right. So what is it that you meant, at least when you drafted this, about voting is a responsibility? I mean, why was that in here?

MR. FREDERICK: I object on the basis of legislative privilege, to the extent that it seeks a thought or mental impression about pending legislation that goes -- that -- underlying a public statement. So I -- as phrased, I would instruct you not to answer the question.

I guess, probably, I haven't had to do it since 2006. Q. Are you aware of there being a DPS office available for Capitol employees and state employees? A. If you're speaking of the office at 15th and Congress, I thought that was open to the public.

I don't recall any public discussions about that Q. (By Mr. Dunn) Was there any A issue. Q. Do you recall any private discussions without giving me the details? MR. FREDERICK: Objection, legislative privilege. Instruct you not to answer that. MR. DUNN: She doesn't even have to admit whether the discussion happened. MR. FREDERICK: I think with the lead up, I believe that the question implies the substance of a conversation. I'm not trying to prevent you from asking if a conversation ever took place, generally, but I think the subject matter was drawn too specifically to lead up. Q. (By Mr. Dunn) Are you aware of any	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	need to look it up. A. I don't know. Q. Oh, okay. Has it been a while? A. It's been yeah. I think I'm due next year. Q. All right. A. So five or six years. Q. Do you use the private DPS office here available to Capitol staff members? A. I think I do it online. Q. Okay. Each time you do it, you do it online? A. The last time I renewed online. I think I renewed when I got married in 2006, or I went in 2006, because I had to actually show my marriage my new Social Security card. And since then, I've done it online if I had to do it.
